

ANTI-SEMITISM – WHY HAVE THE JEWS BEEN PERSECUTED

THE BIBLE ANSWER

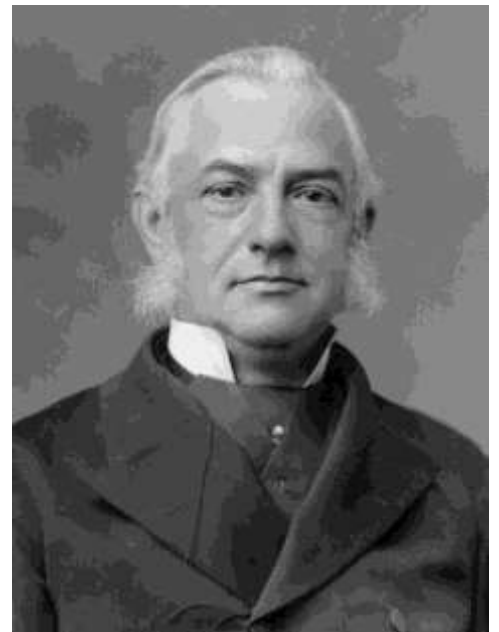

The term “anti-Semitism” is of comparatively recent origin. It describes an organised movement against Jews and has been in use since the 19th century. The term was originally coined in 1879 by the anti-Jewish German journalist, William Marr. Anti-Semitism differs from anti-Jewish prejudice so prevalent in the Middle- Ages, in that it focuses on race rather than antagonism because of the religion and beliefs of the Jewish people.

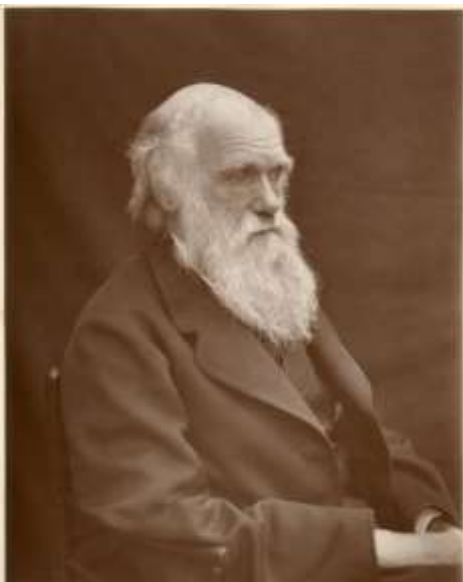

The theory of modern anti-Semitism is directed against the Jews, not only for their religious beliefs, but on the Darwinian distinction between Aryan and Semitic people, introduced by Max Muller in the 1850's. The French writer Count Arthur de Gobineau held that human races were not equal, the white races especially the Nordic were superior. This concept of racial superiority became very popular in the 19th century in Germany.

Adolph Stocker in 1873 founded the Christian Social Workingman's Union to fight the influence of socialism and Jews. In 1881 a move was made to disenfranchise Jews and the anti-Semitic party gained 15 seats in the Reichstag. The movement spread to other countries in Europe, from 1895 there was an anti-Semitic administration in Vienna; in Hungary also there was passion for persecution of Jews; in France was a violent outbreak of propaganda culminating in the trial of Alfred Dreyfus in 1894. Even countries like England were not uninfected, Charles Darwin had published his famous work, the Origin of Species in 1859. Few people remember the full title of that work “even Dawkins when asked was stumped. It is in fact:- “The Origin of Species by means of natural selection, or the Preservation of Favoured Races in the

Francis Galton

Struggle for Life”. His cousin Francis Galton, applied Darwin’s biological theories to human social behaviour, and invented the term Eugenics; a system of breeding more intelligent and capable people by encouraging marriage between families of high rank. Eugenics came later to advocate enforced sterilization of people deemed irresponsible. This was taken up in the U.S.A. AND OVER 60,000 were sterilized against their will. The idea of the Master Race did not originate with a German, but with the Englishman, Houston Stuart Chamberlain in his pseudo-scientific work:- “Foundations of the Nineteenth Century”, in which he advocated that those who were of Nordic and Teutonic descent were the superior race. Kaiser Wilhelm was so pleased with his work that he made Chamberlain an ‘Honorary German citizen’.

Houston Stuart Chamberlain

Chamberlain’s work also deprecated the Jewish race. The publication in 1919 of the “Protocols of the Elders of Zion” which endeavoured to prove the existence of an international Jewish conspiracy to control the whole world, this led to a revival of anti-Jewish propaganda in many countries, and it became incorporated into the propaganda of the German National Socialist Party. In the United States a movement along the lines of this party in Germany was supported by

Henry Ford

Henry Ford, the car manufacturer. In Germany the Nazi Party membership had increased to 16,400,000. After the Second World War the world Jewish population was reduced to 10 million. In Britain few people were aware of the scale of the atrocities against the Jews. Publications on the subject were banned until 1954, when Lord Russell of Liverpool's book, entitled "The Scourge of the Swastika: A History of Nazi War Crimes" was published to the absolute Horror of the general public.

Now of course there have been thousands of publications and many films on the subject. And yet, and yet Antisemitism is still around and increasing. Synagogues and Cemeteries have been desecrated, though politically it is expressed as Anti-Zionism. The Holocaust has been debated over and over again still with many unanswered Questions. How a civilized and cultured people, such as the Germans were believed to be, find themselves dragged down into the abyss of the Holocaust? Then there is the question, where was God in the Holocaust? However intellectuals try to understand it or explain it, all most all, conclude that it was a terrible aberration and they hope that nothing like it will ever happen again. Well as much as people like to hope, what has been happening in the streets of England and its capital city, London, now? You see Antisemitism is not just a phenomenon of the 20th and 21st centuries. It is in fact a culmination of Anti - Judaism that has been going on for centuries in which Jews have suffered discrimination, expulsions, persecution and death. The Book of Esther recounts a plot in ancient Persia 483 BC (Iran today) to destroy all the Jews.

1929 – Jews living in Hebron are massacred, (just as they did in October 2023)

In every century for nearly 2500 years the Jewish people have remained wanderers among the nations, suffering discrimination, unreasonable hatred, robbery, persecution and massacre. Every calamity Gentiles have suffered have been blamed upon the Jews, when plagues occurred it was because of their unhygienic living conditions of it was the fault of the Jews who did not succumb to the plague, the actual reason being their insistence of ritual purity. If a child went missing the Jews were suspect. If a well was poisoned, it was down to the Jews. If a country was invaded it was because the Jews were spies. If the money was in short supply it was because of Jewish usury. If Kings or governments were short of money, then it was extracted from the Jews. If the peasants revolted against taxation it was down to the Jews. This was not limited to one country, virtually every country in Europe behaved in the same way towards the Jews. In England, France, Spain, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Poland, Ukraine Russia all participated in dehumanizing the Jew. You see it in literature in Shakespeare's 'Shylock', in Dickens 'Fagin', and in Lion Feuchtwanger's book 'Jew Suss'. Among the historic causes of Antisemitism' (very popular in European Christian culture from the 13th century, is on account of the teaching of the Roman Catholic Church, and later, the teaching of the Lutheran Protestant Churches. Blood libels and host desecration that drew popular attention, leading to many cases of persecution against Jews. Popularly believed, was that Jews poisoned wells to cause plagues. In the case of blood libel it was widely believed that the Jews would kill a gentile child before Easter and needed Christian blood to bake their matzo. Child murders led to accusations of blood libel, no matter how small the Jewish population. The Church often added to the fire, by portraying the dead child as a martyr who had been tortured to death and the image of the child received powers, like Jesus was believed to have possessed. Sometimes the children were even made Saints. Historically, blood libels often took place close to Passover, when Jews were charged with using the blood of Christian children to bake matzahs. The proximity of such charges to Easter was thus also often associated with the continuing belief that Jews were responsible for the Passion and Crucifixion of Jesus. Blood libels, together with allegations of well poisoning, were a major theme in Jewish persecution in Europe throughout the Middle Ages and into the modern period. They were a central component in the development of modern antisemitism in the 19th century. Anti-Semitic imagery such as the Judensau (Jew pig) and Ecclesia et Synagoga recurred in Christian art and architecture. Anti-Jewish Easter holiday customs such as the Burning of Judas apparently continue to present time. Martin Luther, (the great Protestant) advised :-... “be on your guard against the Jews and their Synagogues – a den of devils, defaming God and nothing but thieves and robbers, who eat no morsel and wear no thread of clothing, but by means of their accursed usury. He demanded that their Synagogues should be burned down; that all books, Talmudic writings and the entire Bible should be confiscated from them; that they be forbidden on pain of death to praise God, to give thanks, to pray, and to teach publicly among the people in his country.” The irony about ‘Usury’ is that it was the Roman Catholic Church made it a sin for Christians to make a profit from another Christians.

The view of the Roman Catholic Church regarding the Jews since the Middle Ages. The two figures are placed at the left and right edges of the altarpiece. Ecclesia is young and gazes up toward the Crucifixion scene at the centre of the altarpiece. Synagoga is old with eyes cast down and blindfolded. The book in her hand, that she cannot see is the Old Testament. In medieval Europe, Jews were often compared to pigs or depicted as having intimate relations with pigs. “Judensau,” which refers to obscene contact between Jews and female pigs, appeared in thirteenth century Germany and remained popular throughout Europe for several hundred years. Contemporary examples of Judensau appear when pigs are portrayed together with images of Jews or the Star of David in cartoons or political commentary. In Muslim texts, Jews have been compared since ancient times to apes and pigs.

In contemporary texts and cartoons, Jews and Israelis are often portrayed as a variety of barnyard and zoological animals and insects. Clearly Lutheranism itself is not a truly Christian organisation, by Bible standards. But consider these doctrines of Catholicism and Lutheranism. If you teach people generation after generation, that people who do not accept Christ as their Saviour, will endure the burning fire of hell for eternity. Is it surprising that when those, who have been brought up on these ideas, encounter a people who are condemned by the churches as Child Killers, who should be committed to the flames? Have they not been brainwashed into thinking that they are doing GOD'S WORK FOR HIM? Indeed when the Nazis were confronted by the Roman Catholic Archbishops, about the Nazi persecution of Jews, they replied, 'Why are you complaining, we are only doing more efficiently what you have done in your inquisitions for centuries!'

Oh yes, the Holocaust was fostered by Adolph Hitler but who assisted him when Jews seeking to find somewhere to find sanctuary, they turned to their ancient homeland where they had been promised refuge by the British Government. Palestine had undergone a number of changes since the Balfour declaration, the Arab people in the First World War had accepted Jewish immigration, but not the establishment of a pan-Arab federation or state led by Muhammad Amin al-Husayni who visited Hitler and agreed to spread Nazi propaganda anti-British, and anti-Jewish propaganda by radio to the Arab world; inciting violence against Jews and the British authorities in the Middle East; and recruiting young men of Islamic faith for service in German military.

The remarkable thing is that the Jews, though an ancient race have still survived after encountering the great powers of the past and are still with us to this day. They encountered the Assyrians, the Babylonians, the Medes, the Persians, the Greeks, the Seleucids, the Romans, all of whose empires have passed away, the identities of peoples and races have merged with other nations and acquired different customs, cultures, and different religious identities; but the Jews remain, Judaism remains and the Jewish scriptures, the Old and New Testaments remain. Today the Jews are one of the world's smallest ethnic groups with a population of 6.9 million the State of Israel represents 0.11 of the world population. (Google)

Mark Twain reflected on similar statistics and observed that:- properly the Jew ought hardly to be heard of but he is heard of, he is as prominent on the planet as other people and his commercial importance is extravagantly out of proportion to the smallness of his bulk. He has made a marvellous fight in this world and he has done it with his hands tied behind him. The Egyptian, the Babylonian, the Persian rose filled the planet with sound and a splendour and passed away. The Greek and the Roman followed with a vast noise and are gone others followed only to burn brightly for a while and then recede into twilight. The Jew saw them all, beat them all, survived them all. All things are mortal but the Jew; all other forces pass, but he remains. What is the secret of his immortality?

The answer to this question is to be found in the Bible, which substantiates its claim to be the Word of God by the evidence of Prophecy. For the Bible contains predictions preserved, as the apostle Peter has written, in old time not by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. (2Pe 1:21) These predictions concerning the Jewish people and the nations that afflicted them and the nations that would help them and in particular one Jew in particular who would claim to be their Messiah, their future King.

So who are the Jews anyway? Well the book that is best able to answer this question is known as the Bible, indeed Melvyn Bragg best known to the British public as a radio and television broadcaster, on the 400th anniversary of the printing and publication of the King James Bible, described it as the Book of Books.

Bragg's book shows how in many ways the Bible has shaped and moulded the English speaking peoples. In 25 chapters he covers the translation of the Bible from Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek languages and the translation into English had upon the rulers and general public. He writes about the influence it had on English and American literature, such as Shakespeare, early modern science and authors such as Wilberforce, Mary Wollstonecraft and even Richard Dawkins. He describes the Bible's impact on society, two chapters on Slavery and the Civil War in America, another two on the Bible and women, another on Christian Socialism and the Social Gospel and concludes with the Bible and democracy.

However there is one important subject that the author did not touch upon and that is Prophecy. The Bible is prophetic, it contains prophecies that have been fulfilled, prophecies that are being fulfilled and Prophecies that are yet to be fulfilled, but in order to understand these it is essential to know the Bible's account of the people known all over the world as the Jews.

First of all what is the Bible? It is a collection of books 39 of which make up the Old Testament and 27 which make up the New Testament. The first five books of the Old Testament also known as the 'Pentateuch' were written by Moses and the others were written by Israelite leaders, Judges, Prophets and Kings. The New Testament was written by the men who were disciples of Jesus Christ in his ministry in Judaea. The first book of the Bible, 'Genesis' describes how God created the World and all forms life and last of all, Mankind. It records how the first man and woman disobeyed the instructions that God had given them and began the corruption that led to the decomposition of all living things. It also records the names of all the descendants of the first human pair, Adam and Eve, whose progeny is recorded in Genesis chapter 5. This brings us to 1656 years from creation, when because God saw the wickedness of mankind's behaviour was so great and every imagination of his heart was only evil continually, He determined to destroy mankind from the face of the earth by, with the exception of Noah a just man who lived a God fearing life and his family, eight persons altogether. The scripture records how the universal flood came and Noah and his family survived. The scripture then records how after the flood the sons of Noah multiplied and their generations are recorded. However the sons of Shem are recorded through to the tenth generation to the birth of Abraham.

It was with this man Abraham that GOD (known as Yahweh in the Hebrew text) made an everlasting Covenant which we find in Genesis 15:18:- In the same day Yahweh made a covenant with Abram saying, "Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river the river Euphrates" Later this was extended as we read in (Gen 22:15-18). "And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time and said, "By myself have I sworn, said the LORD, for because you have done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and your seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; and in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice".

Abraham's son Isaac certainly had two sons and one in particular, Jacob had twelve sons. With Isaac and Jacob, Yahweh also confirmed his promises. All these were descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, were the patriarchs of the Hebrew race. God changed Jacob's name to Israel and his sons developed into the twelve tribes of Israel, and 430 years later Moses of the tribe of Levi recorded how their descendants became slaves of the Egyptians until Moses under Divine instruction led all twelve tribes out of Egypt together with a mixed multitude. Moses led all these people to Mount Sinai where they experienced a manifestation of God, and received the Ten Commandments which by common consent they all agreed to obey. Eventually they entered the Promised Land and for a time they kept the Law they had been given. But as time went on the Israelites decided they wanted a King to be like all the other nations.

In time they were given a King who rebelled against the instruction God had given and he was slain in battle. He was succeeded by King David who reigned 40 years during which the Israelites became a great nation. He died and Solomon became king and Israel became the most powerful nation of that era. However after Solomon the Kingdom was broken. 10 tribes opted to follow Jeroboam and 2 tribes followed Rehoboam the King of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin. It was on this account that members of these two tribes became known as Jews. The ten tribes were later carried away to Assyria, putting them in Halah and Habor the cities of the Medes (2Ki 18:11) the people of Judah continued on their land until 584 B.C when Nebuchadnezzar destroyed Jerusalem and the Temple built by Solomon.

But Moses prophesied how the nations would be astonished at the destruction that had been wrought on Judah and Jerusalem as he wrote in Deuteronomy 29:24-8 “even all nations shall say, “Why has the LORD done this to this land?” What is the meaning of the heat of this great anger?” Then men shall say, “Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt: For they went and served other gods, and worshipped gods whom they had not known, which he had not given them:

And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book: And the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day. (Deut. 29:24-28 KJV)

This statement presupposes that the predictions would not only come true, but that their fulfilment would become a well-known matter among the nations, and more than this, it assumes that the nations would be familiar with the information written in that book. In other words the Bible containing Law of Moses would have a world-wide circulation, as it does in fact today. The Bible, a book which has overleapt national boundaries and has been translated into virtually every known language. Where in any other literature of comparable antiquity is there a confident prediction that any book would continue extant through all generations and come to be the common property of all nations? Consider Isaiah's prophecy:- Who among you will listen to this? Who will take note for the time to come? Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? Did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? For they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient to his law. Therefore he has poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it has set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart. (42:23-25) Why did God do this? Well, consider the prophecies of Jeremiah (16:6) where he speaks of Israel's return to their ancient homeland for he declares in chapter how this would be accomplished in two stages:- Firstly, “Behold I will send for many fishers and they shall fish them, and after will I send many hunters and they shall hunt them from every mountain and from every hill and out of the holes of the rocks”. And you know that is precisely what happened but how are we to understand this? In late

Georgian and Victorian times as a result of the Protestant Reformation, the enthusiasm for Bible reading produced a great interest in Bible Prophecy and one aspect took hold in a very remarkable way. For it became widely understood among European and British Protestants that the Second Coming of Christ would not occur until the Jews returned to their ancient Homeland. Jesus told his disciples and disciples “I will make you fishers of men”. Thus a desire to help Jews to learn about the Lord Jesus and later to assist them to return what had become known as Palestine. And to explain to them the faith in Christ Jesus. Many notable people such as William Wilberforce, Lewis Way and Charles Simeon assisted in the Christian Mission to the Jews, known as CMJ. The Movement began to help the Jews in England and abroad to rise from poverty and to encourage them to return to their homeland. Effectively this were Fishers of man reaching out across the world and through them, though not fully cognisant of the truth as it is in Jesus, they helped the Jews to return, a people without a land.

Lord Shaftesbury and Lord Palmerston expressed strong interest in the Jewish people returning to their ancient homeland. Many Jews were interested in in getting to their homeland, and though a few converted to Christianity Fishing was not enough even to think about a Jewish State until Theodore Herzl inspired the Zionist movement with his book “Der Judenstad” they tried persuasion to entice the Jews to go back to Palestine, but the wealthy and influential Jews were too comfortable to even consider the possibility of emigration. Persuasion was not enough: it required the many Hunters and God says they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. (Jeremiah 16 v.16,17) For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes. And what efficient hunters the Nazis proved to be! Written down for death if you had one Jewish grandparent, and how fanatical, hauling Jews out of the sewers of the Warsaw Ghetto to realize the final solution! Seeking to eliminate Jewish influence from every aspect of everyday living. Jews were hunted down from every city, not only in Germany but every town and city conquered by the Nazi regime: towns and villages, mountain and forest hide outs, from holes in the ground, even pursuing them down into the sewers where they sought refuge Such were the hunters sent to destroy the Jewish people, seizing valuables and paintings and properties with shouts of JUDEN RAUS AND PEREZ JUDAH, rounding them up like cattle and shoving them into concentration camps. Why? Not what you might think but to impress upon their minds that they were only ever really safe when they worshipped and obeyed the God of the Bible and observed his laws.

The following is an official German record of the meeting between Adolf Hitler and the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, Haj Amin al-Husseini, on November 28, 1941, at the Reich Chancellery in Berlin

The Arabs could be more useful to Germany as allies than might be apparent at first glance, both for geographical reasons and because of the suffering inflicted upon them by the English and the Jews.

Furthermore, they had had close relations with all Muslim nations, of which they could make use in behalf of the common cause. The Arab Legion would be quite easy to raise. An appeal by the Mufti to the Arab countries and the prisoners of Arab, Algerian, Tunisian and Moroccan nationality in Germany would produce a great number of volunteers eager to fight. Of Germany's victory the Arab world was firmly convinced, not only because the Reich possessed a large army, brave soldiers and military leaders of genius, but also because ALLAH could never award the victory to an unjust cause.

Let us familiarise ourselves as to what happened in Europe under the Third Reich. There were 1million,100,000 human beings killed in Auschwitz alone, between May 1940 and January 1945. Shocking enough? Jews were rounded up and crammed into cattle trucks; with no food, no water, no latrines, little light, no room, 50 persons per truck.

A cattle wagon used for the transport of Belgian Jews to camps in Eastern Europe. The openings were covered in barbed wire. This example is preserved at Fort Breendonk.

Concentration camps

The prisoners of Auschwitz were transported from many ghettos of occupied Europe. But they were not only Jews. A considerable number of non-Jewish inmates were constituted by the political enemies of the Third Reich. They were also members of resistance movements.

Where are the Jews located today?

We are now living in the third to fourth generation since World War 2. The rising generation has little idea of the real terror and horror of international warfare, but it is coming. Nations are preparing for it and Bible Prophecy informs those who are prepared to investigate, as what this pending war will be about, and who will actually be the combatants. One thing has not changed since the last World War and that is Antisemitism. It is incredible that after the horror of the Holocaust, the hatred for the Jews being manifest in marches through British cities is a vile affront against those who gave their lives to defeat totalitarianism.

However the Bible reveals that there will be a confederation of nations that will agree to invade the Middle East with the intention of seizing power over the whole territory but at the same time that that is put into operation Israel Messiah will intervene. Consider again the evidence for this that is contained in the Bible, for instance Moses prediction in Deuteronomy 30:3-5 “That the LORD your God will turn your captivity, and have compassion upon you, and will return and gather you from all the nations, where the LORD thy God hath scattered you. If any of yours be driven out to the outmost parts of heaven, from there will the LORD your God gather you, and from there will he fetch you:) And the LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it; and he will do you good, and multiply you above your fathers.

Moses was not alone in for-seeing the regathering of Israel and the Jewish People to their ancient homeland. Isaiah the prophet predicted concerning the Israeli people, “Fear not: for I am with you: I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west; I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth.”

Isaiah 43:5 - 6

As does Jeremiah30:3

*“For, lo, the days come, says the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, says the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.”

Jeremiah 31:7-9 “For thus says the LORD; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish and give praise, and say, O LORD, save your people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travails with child together: a great company shall return there. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.”

Jeremiah 31:10 “Hear the word of the Lord, O you nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him as a shepherd does his flock.”

Jeremiah 32:37 “Behold, I will gather them out of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger and in my fury and in great wrath, and I will bring them again unto this place.”

Ezekiel.36:24 “For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.”

Ezekiel 37:21 “And say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, where they are gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them unto their own land: And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all.”

“Therefore thus says the Lord God; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name; after that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid. When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the nations; but I have gathered them into their own land and have left none of them anymore there.” Ezekiel 39:25-28

Amos 9:14 “And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, says the LORD your God.”

Hosea 3:4 -5 “For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim: Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.”

Romans 11:25-27 “Blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in; and so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written: There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob; for this is my covenant with them, when I shall take away their sins.”

It is evident from the foregoing passages that, if the Bible is true, then the restoration of the entire nation of Israel is a development which must certainly take place, for these prophecies to be literally fulfilled. That not one single Jew will be left in any of the countries of their dispersion is a startling prediction. If anyone at one time had suggested that in a few years there would be a Jewish State with a Jewish Parliament, a Jewish President, a Jewish Prime Minister, a Jewish army, navy and an air force, with shekels as currency among a Jewish population made up of immigrants from all over the world and all speaking Hebrew, the response would have been, “You must be nuts – that’s impossible! But today it is an undeniable fact.

Frederick the Great: Can you give me one single, irrefutable proof of God?

John Baptiste du Boyer, Marquis D’argens: Yes Your Majesty, the Jews.

But this brings us to consider could a Holocaust occur today, undoubtedly it certainly could. There is no doubt that hatred for the Jews is on the increase since the European Union states allowed Muslim immigrants to enter EU countries including Britain. When the State of Israel came into being Muslim countries forced their Jewish populations to migrate to Israel, but at the same time they approved of Syrian, Jordanian and Egyptian attempts to destroy Israel.

When Hamas attacked the Jewish State in October 2023 not one Arab country publically opposed the attack. The fact is that Second, post-war Jews in Israel have always been vastly outnumbered by Arabs in the surrounding countries of Egypt, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Syria, and Iraq, and by the Persians in Iran. Even the population of Palestinian Arabs in Gaza and the West Bank rivals that of Jews in Israel. Yet Israel punches far above its weight class. There is an imbalance here, for many Arabs simply hated Jews before modern Israel was founded, a hatred that was encouraged by the Nazis and the Fuhrer himself. The total population in the Arab World today stands at 464.68 million inhabitants. The media in recent years has indicated that Russia aided by other European and Asian countries is intending to create a New World Order which once more will invade the pro-Western countries and establish an autocracy over the Middle East. But this time it will be different because Bible Prophecies reveal, that when this occurs, there will be a far more massive Divine intervention, at the hand of Jesus Christ who will himself establish a New World, Order the Kingdom of God on earth.
